Nine years for Bridport drug dealer

ROBERTS CLAIMED MDMA TABLETS WERE FOR PERSONAL USE – AND HE TOOK 200+ EVERY WEEKEND

A BRIDPORT drug dealer who bought and sold drugs over the 'dark web' has been jailed for nine years.

Aaron Roberts, 24, pleaded guilty at Bournemouth Crown Court on Thursday, September 15th to a number of drug-related offences, including importing Class A and B drugs, production of Class A drugs and possession with intent to supply Class A and B drugs. He was sentenced at the same court on Friday, September 30th.

The court was told that Roberts advertised the drugs for sale on the dark web using the web site Silk Road.

His activities were discovered on January 15th 2015 when the UK Visas and Immigration inter-

by Lottie Welch

lottie@viewnews.co.uk

cepted an envelope addressed to Roberts of a DVD case containing 101 ecstasy tablets.

On March 30th 2015, a search warrant was executed at Roberts' home address. A search of his room uncovered around 470 grams of MDMA, 19 grams of cocaine and over 1,200 N-Bomb tabs (powerful hallucinogens, similar to LSD).

A large quantity of cash and equipment used in the production of drugs were also located.

His computer equipment and mobile phones were seized and officers found evidence of him buying and selling drugs online.

During a police interview, Roberts claimed that the drugs were for his own use and that he took between 200 and 300 MDMA tablets each weekend.

Following the police interview he was bailed. When he returned from police bail, officers executed a second warrant at his address and discovered that Roberts had continued to order drugs off the internet and a further package containing cannabis was seized.

HAVING grown up in the middle of Exmoor National Park and later moving to West Dorset, Harry Toulson now lives in Wayford on the Dorset and Somerset border and recently set up the Lyme Regis SUP Club for stand-up paddle boarding enthusiasts.

He also runs SUP safaris, which combine his passions for nature and stand-up paddle boarding, and also makes his own custom SUP and surfboards.

● FOR those who don't know, what is SUP?

SUP stands for 'stand up paddle'; it's a relatively new sport, with origins in Hawaii. Stand up paddleboards are like oversized surfboards, propelled through the water using a paddle. There are lots of different offshoots of SUP from wave riding and racing, to white water SUP and even yoga!

● WHAT encouraged you to start the Lyme Regis SUP Club?

Before I moved to Wayford, I lived near Dorchester and I paddled regularly with a club in Weymouth called the Jurassic SUP Club; they are a really nice bunch, and joining a club is a great way of meeting people and enjoying being active, it's also great exercise. When I moved here I noticed Lyme didn't have a club, so I thought it would be a good opportunity to set one up, and meet some other paddlers. We now have over 100 active members!

● CAN anyone join, or do you need experience?

The club is open to anyone. We recommend having a taster lesson before joining the group paddles, as due to the group nature of the session, it's difficult to give tuition. I offer taster sessions for £25, including all the equipment. If you have your own gear, it's free to paddle with the group, if you would like to hire equipment, I hire everything you need for the session for £12.

● TELL us a little about your SUP Safaris...

The idea behind my safaris was to marry two things I love - nature and SUP! Being on a paddle board is a great way to get up close to nature, in a non-intrusive and low impact way; it gives you a fresh perspective on the coastline and the stunning beauty of the Jurassic Coast. I take groups out for two hours, along a range of planned itineraries I have curated because of their ecological/geological interest, the safaris are open to all abilities and the first part of the session is tuition to get you comfortable on the board.

● WHAT do you enjoy about the sport?

There is so much I love about the sport. There is a real emphasis on the social aspect, and the SUP community are very welcoming, there isn't the snobbery and hostility found in some areas of the surfing community. It's just about having fun and being active, whatever niche of the sport you are involved in, it's really refreshing and optimistic, and exciting for a sport in its relative infancy. SUP is accessible, and easy to pick up; I have introduced people from six to 66 to the sport!

● YOU also make your own surf boards - tell us a little about what you can offer...

I have always loved making things. My father is a woodcarver, and I was lucky to have my passion for creating things nurtured growing up. I went to a school called Brymore; the school has some of the finest workshops of any school, I got the opportunity to work with a range of materials under some really great teachers.

I love to make boards, more than anything else, in fact everything else I do is so that I can continue to make wave riding boards. Custom orders for SUP or surfboards start with a conversation about what the customer wants, and where, and in what conditions the craft will be used, then we talk about composites and materials used in the manufacture of the board and how the rider wants the board to perform. Finally we can add colours, designs and different finishes to the board.

I love to play with different and new materials, and constantly improve and push my skills and knowledge, so if you have an idea for a custom board, please get in touch!

● DO you take part in any other water sports?

I grew up swimming in a huge concrete tidal pool on Minehead Beach, and sailing with the Sea Scouts. I think if you grow up in the South West, you have to have some kind of connection with the ocean, it's all around us! I have had a go at just about every water sport there is, and as well as SUP and surf, I am qualified in sailing, canoe, diving, power boating and I'm a qualified lifeguard!

● WHAT do you like about the local area?

I have been lucky enough to travel all over the world, and there is nowhere I have found that I would rather be, this is my home. This answer might be different if you ask me in the middle of a UK winter!

Plans to tarmac West Bay car park unpopular

RESIDENTS have branded plans to tarmac car parks in West Bay as "completely inappropriate". West Dorset District Council are proposing to spend £400,000 to carry out major improvements to a number of its car parks, with £190,000 being allocated to three West Bay car parks.

These include the Bridport Arms car park, West Bay Road car park and Station Road car park, which currently have gravel surfaces.

The report was discussed at Bridport Town Council's planning committee meeting last week.

Town clerk Bob Gillis said: "They haven't given any details of what they are planning to do but it [the report] made the point that the car parks are in a poor state and they need to be repaired to improve safety, but also to mark out spaces properly."

"It did say in their report that the Bridport Arms and Station Road car parks need a tarmac surface."

"There is a lot of concern, particularly about the Bridport Arms one, feeling that it doesn't need to be tarmaced."

by Lottie Welch
lottie@viewnews.co.uk

Residents expressed their concern at the meeting, blasting the plans as 'inappropriate'.

Resident Jim Tigg said: "There is an argument for tarmac Bridport Arms car park, one of the arguments is that the natural surface that is there at the moment is unsafe and another argument is that more cars can be parked, thus creating more income."

"Well, it is not unsafe, it has been there for many years and even if more cars can be accommodated – half a dozen perhaps – this will only benefit to the income during periods of peak demands, say about eight weeks a year. I think a tarmac car park will be ugly and soulless."

Resident Sylvia Stafford agreed and branded the plans as "completely inappropriate", adding that

"West Bay as we know it would be no more and there would be serious detriment".

However, John West, chairman of West Bay Community Forum, showed support for the plans to improve the car parks.

He said: "The community forum supports, and has done for some time, the improvements of the surfaces of each of those car parks."

"The car parks are a vital bit of our infrastructure; they need to meet the needs of both tourists and residents."

"We do have reservations however, about the proposed changes to the Bridport Arms car park. Correspondence, which residents have had here with the car parking manager at West Dorset District Council, suggests that his plan is to lay black tarmac on the Bridport Arms car park."

"As it is in the heart of the West Bay conservation area, we believe that it should be surfaced in a colour and material which is sympathetic to its surrounding buildings."

Clr Dave Rickard suggested that the district council thought "there is a lot of people complaining about West Bay, we will throw some money at it".

Clr John Russell, West Dorset District Council executive portfolio holder for environmental protection and assets, said: "As agreed at the district council's executive committee in August, funds have been made available from our reserves for the maintenance of West Dorset car parks."

"Investment in our car parks is vital for the commercial viability of the various market towns and seaside resorts across West Dorset.

"To provide quality, well maintained and safe car parks requires a continuous rolling programme of planned works."

Dark web drug dealer sentenced

Detective Constable Tom Hall, of Weymouth CID, said: "I hope this sentence will send a strong message that drug dealing will not be tolerated in Dorset."

"This kind of organised crime is far from victimless. It has a huge impact on the community at varying levels from the acquisitive low-level crime fuelled by drug addiction, to the pain experienced by those having lost a loved one due to drugs."

"Roberts was found to be in possession of a variety of drugs including cocaine, ecstasy and N-Bombs. It is widely known that drugs like these are responsible for numerous deaths."

"Dorset Police, in partnership with the National Crime Agency and UK Visas and Immigration, will continue to robustly pursue and bring to justice those offenders that contribute nothing to our communities and instead seek to profit by putting others at risk of harm."

Officers in Bridport are continuing to crackdown on drug use and dealing in the area and carried out two searches in the town last week.

During the morning of Friday, September 30th, Bridport Police officers executed two search warrants within the property of West Rivers House, Bridport.

Two addresses located inside were believed to be linked to the misuse of controlled drugs. The subsequent search resulted in the discovery of suspected stolen property and indications that controlled drugs had been misused inside.

A spokesperson for Bridport Police said: "This latest intervention is part of Bridport Police's ongoing operation to target people who we suspect are involved in the supply of illegal drugs, and to tackle the users who bring the associated violence, crime and anti-social behaviour to our town."

Anyone with information about this type of crime can call Crimestoppers free on 0800 555 111 to report it anonymously and they may receive a cash reward.

Plumbase to close

A BUSINESS offering heating and plumbing services and supplies is closing down its Bridport branch at the end of the year.

Plumbase, situated on the Old Trading Estate, Sea Road North, was part of a branch review and told it would close in December, but it is unknown how many people will lose their jobs.

The plumbing and heating merchant started a consultation process with employees who could be affected on August 31st.

Andy Williams, Plumbase managing director, said: "It has been a challenging 12 months with difficult trading conditions further complicated by the recent Brexit vote.

"A relatively small proportion of our branches are affected and we remain committed to strengthening our business and the delivery of our long term strategy focused upon the sustainable growth in profitability."

Plumbase is the fourth largest plumbing and heating merchant in the UK with 198 branches nationwide and it currently employs around 1,100 staff.

It is owned by the Grafton Group plc and was contacted by the View From Bridport for a comment. At the time of going to press we are yet to receive a response.

Dorchester maternity services to be downgraded before consultation

PLANS for maternity services and the Special Care Baby Unit (SCBU) at Dorset County Hospital (DCH) to be downgraded are going ahead without public consultation.

Three maternity rooms are being transformed into a midwife led unit, and babies born under 32 weeks and those that are sick will be sent to Poole Hospital.

The plans will take effect within a matter weeks.

By the time the public consultation on whether to make Bournemouth Hospital the main centre for maternity and paediatric care in Dorset takes place, DCH will have already transferred much of this care to Poole Hospital.

The unit will be reclassified so it takes babies born after 32 weeks, rather than 27 weeks as it is at present.

Claudia Sorin, from the campaign group Save SCBU, Kingfisher and Maternity at DCH, said: "We are shocked that the downgrade of maternity and SCBU is going ahead without proper consultation.

"We have been campaigning for these services to remain at DCH because poor transport links to Poole and Bournemouth and a struggling ambulance service mean patients will be put at risk."

Dorchester mum Naomi Patterson also expressed concern. She said: "With sick and very small babies, bonding is crucial and this is going to be more difficult for families if they have to travel very long distances.

"Travel times and distance are a major factor when considering where to have maternity and paediatric services but Dorset CCG does not appear to have taken this into account when making these plans. Patients will suffer because of this."

Bridport councillor Ros Kayes said: "I am shocked. This is a major change and as such needs to be consulted on and to go before the Dorset Health Scrutiny Committee before changes are made.

"It is not right to make changes without following due process. It is underhand and suggests that the CCG have no respect for that process."

In a statement issued by the Dorset CCG, the organisation said: "Whilst we recognise that the structure and internal working of the NHS is complex, we feel it is important that people understand these changes and recognise that some changes are being made outside of the Clinical Services Review.

"This is so that services can be improved quickly in order to offer benefits for local mums-to-be and their children at the earliest opportunity.

"The re-designation of the local neonatal service to a Special Care Baby Unit lies outside of the Clinical Services Review.

"It is important to be clear that there will still be a Special Care Baby Unit at Dorset County Hospital and that this re-designation will only affect around 15 mums-to-be a year, who are likely to deliver in the units where their babies will receive their initial critical care.

"Babies born in units other than DCH will be transferred back to DCH when their clinical condition improves.

"To re-iterate, the re-designation of the special care baby unit and the creation of a midwifery-led unit at DCH are not part of the Clinical Services Review.

"As has been made clear, no decisions on the recommendations and proposals that form part of the clinical services review will be made until we have undergone a full public consultation.

"This is still the case and we hope to be able to announce a start date shortly."

'Story slam' set to return

THE Bridport Story Slam is returning to Bridport Arts Centre this month as part of the Bridport Open Book Festival.

The event, organised by local writer Frances Colville, includes writers from all over Dorset gathering to read their prose fiction - which must last no longer than five minutes - in front of three judges and a live audience. It will take place in the arts centre café on Tuesday, October 11th at 7.15pm.

Tracey West, sustainable living author and publisher from Lyme Regis, is one of the judges for this year's story slam.

She is the founder and chief judge of the Magic Oxygen Literary Prize (MOLP) and is well versed at assessing short stories and poetry. During the evening, there will be fundraising for local writer Tom Rogers, who is soon to set off on a trek in Malawi on a WaterAid project in memory of his son Sam.

Numbers are limited so anyone wishing to attend the event, either as a reader or as part of the audience, needs to buy a ticket in advance from the Bridport Arts Centre box office.

Anyone wishing to add their name to the list of people hoping to read should send an email to frances.colville@gmail.com

All those on the list will have their names put into a hat and 10 to 12 will be drawn out on the night to read.

Colfox U13s take to the field at Edgbaston

THE Sir John Colfox Academy travelled to Birmingham last month to compete in the national finals of the eight-a-side Chance To Compete cricket tournament.

Secondary schools from across the country battled it out across the summer for a place in the final, with the U13 boys squad playing at Edgbaston in an effort to claim the title of Chance to Compete championship.

The England and Wales Cricket Board (ECB) also provided a coach that picked them up at 6am so they could start play in the Midlands at 10.30am.

All teams were provided a full Chance To Shine kit, with their names and numbers printed on the shirts, and played on the main pitch at Edgbaston with the scores on the electronic scoreboards dotted around the ground.

The teams played a straight semi-final / final format. In the semi Colfox came up against a good Canterbury Academy side, who batted well to post a high score in their seven overs.

Some good batting from Ethan Robertson allowed Col-fox to bat through the overs, but unfortunately not enough runs were scored to take them into the final.

This meant they were in the 3rd/4th place play-off against Sale Grammar School.

A good bowling performance by Harry Burwood resulted in him taking a couple of wickets and keeping Sale's score down to a "gettable" total.

The team went in confident that the score was attainable, yet despite a bright opening score from Euan Pollock and Ethan Robertson, once again the total proved just out of reach.

Despite the two losses the day proved a memorable experience playing on a test match ground – something the vast majority of cricketers will never get to do.

The team also got to have tea in one of the executive boxes!

All teams played with an exceptionally good attitude, conveying fantastic skill and high spirits, congratulating opposing players – as well as their teammates – when balls crossed the boundary rope and wickets fell.

As an added bonus, former England cricketer James Taylor was on hand to provide inspiration, manage the coin toss and cheer the competing teams on.

He presented the trophies to the winners and spent time chatting and having his pictures taken with the students.

Despite the two losses on the day, The Sir John Colfox Academy U13s eight-a-side cricket team can still be called the fourth best team in the country.

Pizza shop's new windows can stay

Domino's Pizza will not have to reinstate the previous sloping windows of the Tannery Road building, despite numerous people calling for the application to be rejected.

The chain sought retrospective planning permission from West Dorset District Council to keep the straight windows it had installed, which was approved.

However, Bridport Town Council recommended the application for approval as the windows were "a distinctive feature of the building".

Cllr Dave Rickard said: "I am deeply worried that this and increasingly other cases of allowing retrospective permission to developers who blatantly ignore or abuse the planning system, will cause a rise in unfettered abuse of the system.

"The flood gates will open and democratic control of planning will disappear.

"This would be devastating to Bridport – we already have suffered from many ill thought out planning decisions in the recent past.

"We have several unresolved examples of a similar nature in West Bay. I am afraid that things are going to get much worse in the future."

However, Cllr Keith Day previously argued that it would be costly and unnecessary to change, stating that Domino's had improved the building.

He said: "Although I would not encourage any organisation or individual to ignore planning decisions, I am pleased that common sense prevailed in this case."

Man banned from begging outside Waitrose

A DORCHESTER man has been banned from begging in the alleyway next to Waitrose in Bridport.

Justin Gerrard, who was previously handed a Criminal Behaviour Order (CBO) for begging and theft in Dorchester last year, was in Weymouth Magistrates' Court on Thursday, September 29th to have the order amended in an application by PC Scott McGregor of Bridport Neighbourhood Policing Team.

The order now prohibits Gerrard from begging and entering Waitrose in Bridport, the alleyway and the land immediately adjacent around it, to prevent him causing further acts of anti-social behaviour in the town.

PC Scott McGregor said: "Don't perpetuate the problem of begging.

"If you wish to help and support people who are in need of shelter and food, I would recommend that you donate to dedicated local and national charities who offer support for those in genuine need."

LOCAL artist Nicola Dennis has launched her second book The Magic Makers

Second book by local artist

IT HAS been a successful September for local artist Nicola Dennis, as following on from gaining an award at the Bridport Art Society annual exhibition, she has also announced the publication of her second book, The Magic Makers.

The Magic Makers is a creation myth, written in verse by former local teacher John Eames for readers aged 10 to 100. In the story the awakening sun discovers a new planet in the heavens – earth. The sun summons his four magic makers to give colour, shape, plant life and animal life to earth. The 'Lord of Motion' sets the earth in orbit and his four horses are released to create the cycle of seasons.

Mr Eames began teaching English at Woodroffe School in Lyme Regis in 1972, where Nicola was a student at the time.

He said: "I have always been guided by my knowledge of the stages of child language development but I have never been inhibited by it. This is partly because creativity has its own life and partly because it is important not to lock children into linguistic cells.

"It is vital to find ways through to a child's mind and imagination. Rhythm is central to this. Its music is so powerful that it can excite not just the emotions but also the intellect, leading children to an understanding of vocabularies beyond their notional range."

The techniques used to create The Magic Makers include the use of BRUSHO, a form of transparent watercolour, and crayons.

Ms Dennis said: "I love the analogy of having used crayons to illustrate a children's book.

"The fact that the simplest of art tools, often the first that children will encounter, can be used to inspire them to create something of their own is, in itself, very satisfying.

"To encourage children to write, to express themselves with words or through art is a passion both John and I share and hopefully The Magic Makers will be enjoyed by many generations to come."

Ms Dennis has further publications on the drawing board – Wanda the Oystercatcher and the enchanted Kingdom will be the next in a series of books written and illustrated for the Dorset Wildlife Trust, following in the success of Bizzy the Blenny and the Treasures of the Fleet Lagoon and The Boy with Four Hats.

Ms Dennis will attend book signings at The Bookshop on South Street, Bridport, on Saturday, November 5th – where The Magic Makers is now in stock – and at Groves Nurseries on Saturday, November 19th.

Halloween-themed Clearer Minds Café

THE team behind the Clearer Minds Café Project will be hosting a Halloween café and craft event on October 30th.

After the success of the fundraising coffee morning at Bridport Day Centre in May, this event will also be held at the day centre.

There will be Halloween themed craft activities as well as pumpkin soup, burgers, hot dogs and plenty of sweet treats.

There will also be a prize for the best children's fancy dress and maybe for the adults too.

The Clearer Minds Café is a Bridport based project which centres around mental health. The main purpose is to support and encourage those affected by mental illness by hosting pop-up café days and community events to create voluntary jobs and bring like-minded people together. All proceeds go back into the project for future events.

Anyone wishing to make a donation to the project can do so at www.gofundme.com/clearerminds

More information about the event can be found at <http://bit.ly/2dkseWV>

Food service awards closing soon

THE Bridport Local Food Group is once again running their Front of House/Food Service Awards to show recognition and appreciation to individuals who work locally within the food and drink industry.

There are five categories; restaurants, pub/bar, café, take-away and food/drink retail.

Anyone who has been impressed with the level of service they have received when dining out, having a drink or shopping in the many food outlets in the area can complete a nomination form. These are available from Bridport Tourist Information Centre or from www.bridportfoodfestival.co.uk and need to be returned to Bridport Tourist Information centre by October 10th.

The winners of each category will receive a £50 cash prize and a plaque to display.

THEIR LIVES WERE WORLDS APART...

...THEIR DESTINY JOINED THEM TOGETHER

LYN PAUL returns from her West End run 'THE DEFINITIVE MRS JOHNSTONE'

Written by Willy Russell, the legendary BLOOD BROTHERS tells the captivating and moving tale of twins who, separated at birth, grow up on opposite sides of the tracks, only to meet again with fateful consequences.

Few musicals have received quite such acclaim as the multi-award winning BLOOD BROTHERS. Bill Kenwright's production surpassed 10,000 performances in London's West End, one of only three musicals ever to achieve that milestone. It has been affectionately christened the 'Standing Ovation Musical', as inevitably it 'brings the audience cheering to its feet and roaring its approval' (The Daily Mail).

LYN PAUL returns to the iconic role she has played many times in the West End, in fact she was the show's final Mrs Johnstone when it closed at the Phoenix Theatre in 2012. Lyn also starred in Bill Kenwright's tour of Cabaret with Wil Young in 2013 and rose to fame as a member of the pop group New Seekers whose numerous number one hits include 'I'd Like to Teach the World to Sing' which sold over 20 million copies.

7 SMALL DECORATING TRICKS TO GET YOUR HOUSE READY FOR AUTUMN

By Sarah Yang

We know what you're thinking: "I don't have the time or money to redecorate my entire house for Autumn!" Don't worry: There are plenty of ways to incorporate a cozy autumn theme into your home design without a big budget, or taking until winter to finish. It's all about the accessories and colors - even small changes can make a big difference in your home - just introduce chunky knitted throw blankets and candles to give off a warm glow. With a cozy and welcoming home for autumn, you won't mind being cooped up indoors (and your family and friends might invite themselves over!). Take a look at what the experts had to say and try a few out this autumn.

Switch out Pillows and Throws: This is just about the easiest way to bring something seasonal into a space without spending too much money. "I like to add new pillows and throws around my house, when I can, as the seasons start to change," says interior designer and Target home style expert Emily Henderson. "I'll use thicker blankets with more texture on the back of my couch, or style them in a basket next to an accent chair." Plus, this is the perfect time of year to experiment with sumptuous textiles. Bring in some chunky knits or faux fur for a luxe look.

Style the Mantel: When the days get crisper, nothing sounds nicer than getting cozy by the fireplace. Since you'll spend a lot of time indoors, update the spots where you will be congregating. "Make your fireplace the focal point of your living room by re-styling the mantel," says interior designer Karen Vidal of Design Vidal. "Group a different piece of art and some objects from other areas of your home, then enjoy some new scenery by the flames." It's also a great opportunity to update your fireplace accessories - purchase a new basket for firewood or a decorative fireplace screen.

Bring in the Greens: Sure, summer brings out the best in nature because of all the gorgeous in-season flowers, but don't count out autumn. It's time to showcase the best of autumn foliage, like beautiful autumn leaves and green garlands. "I love layering fresh greenery throughout my house all year long, but especially in the autumn" Henderson says. "Try silver dollar eucalyptus - it will leave your home smelling fresh and it's very affordable. I like to style branches in vases throughout my house." Create simple arrangements with in-season blooms like dahlias and chrysanthemums. Place the flowers or branches in a copper vase (or even a Mason jar!).

Mix in Prints: There's nothing like curling up by the fire with a cozy Pendleton blanket or tartan throw. "The patterns of your home décor will naturally tell a seasonal story, just like the colors do," Henderson says. "Try more substantial patterns like plaid or thick stripes, in warmer colors." It's also a great way to introduce patterns into your home if your current décor contains a lot of solids and neutrals. Just a blanket, pillow, or rug in these designs will signal autumn.

Accent with Seasonal Colors: When you think of an autumn color scheme, the first thing that comes to mind is probably a spectrum of oranges and reds. You can never go wrong with adding a few accents in this color scheme. "Fill a vase with orange blooms or fill a bowl with oranges instead of mini-pumpkins," Vidal says. "You can also showcase books with spines or arrange vases or ceramics in the hues more prominently for autumn."

Light it up: Sometimes when it comes to decorating, we overlook the power of lighting. A soft glow or a bright light can really transform a room. Think of switching out light bulbs or displaying candles to create a cozy feeling. "As the days get shorter throughout the autumn, it's nice to have great lighting options," Henderson says. "When entertaining I'll use different hurricanes and votives throughout a room or on a tablescape. For the everyday, Edison bulb lighting is on trend right now." If you're looking for a quick fix, hang up some string light bulbs on your wall or drape a scarf over a lampshade for a softer lighting.

Change Your Bedding: When the weather turns colder, you'll want to pile on the blankets and textiles for both warmth and as a decorating move. Get your bed ready for colder mornings by swapping out your summer bedding for a warmer duvet. "Changing your bedcover to a heavier one for the autumn season instantly make the bedroom feel more cozy and warm," interior designer Andrew Suvalsky says. "Tailored quilting will emphasize this feeling even more." If you don't want to change out your duvet (or it's one that's good year-round), place a throw blanket at the end of your bed for another cozy layer.

Avenue Interiors

AVENUE Interiors opened in the Avenue, at Dorchester's Brewery Square last November and is now firmly established as the place to go for stylish furniture, unusual accessories and quirky gifts, with free local delivery of furniture and large items.

At Avenue Interiors, run by Gary Lancaster and his partner Gaynor, you will find traditional, contemporary and retro furniture to suit any decor and, being an independent business, Gary and Gaynor can source almost any item. Gary says "When choosing furniture we look for quality materials and finish. We cannot resist tactile and quirky decorative pieces, like our giant enamelled ceramic fruit, impressive dinosaurs and colourful surprised baskets. In addition to furniture and decorative items we stock decorative mirrors, large clocks, lovely cushions and throws and a wide range of high quality lighting."

There are more than three hundred products on the recently created website www.avenueinteriors.co.uk. Items are constantly being added to the website, but it still only shows a small selection of the stock you will find in the store. Christmas items are already arriving at the store, so you really are encouraged to go and see the gorgeous stock for yourself.

Gary continues, "During this first year of business we have been overwhelmed by the encouragement, friendliness and good will of our lovely customers, who frequently comment on their surprise at finding our prices so reasonable. We believe they appreciate that we always keep our prices as low as possible rather than alternating between inflated prices and Sales."

During the weekend Friday 18th - Sunday 20th November, Gary and Gaynor will be celebrating the first anniversary of Avenue Interiors. They hope all their customers will join them at the store for a glass of bubbly.

RAY Pisani opened his stylish and contemporary restaurant, nestled just off the square in Axminster, almost three years ago. The business, which is named after the acclaimed chef and his business partner and long-time friend Franco Pisani, as they coincidentally share the same surname, has continued to gain a reputation for exquisite food served within the calm and comfortable town centre oasis.

Originally from Malta, Ray followed in his father's footsteps and started cooking at the tender age of six. The family owned a busy restaurant on the island and Ray began to learn his craft along with how to best manage a popular business.

"At that time a bread roll, a bottle of coke and a plate of chips worked out to about seven and half pence in today's money," Ray said.

A keen fisherman, the culinarian honed his skills as a teenager, cooking his catch and learning how to best use the traditional Maltese ingredients and methods.

Ray made the move to the UK in 1984 and started work as a sous chef in Cardiff. After very quickly working his way up to a head chef position, the friendly foodie soon decided it was time to strike out on his own and opened his first restaurant with just £25 to his name. With steely determination and an energy and enthusiasm for his cuisine, he quickly became a huge success, gaining numerous accolades and cooking for a whole host of celebrities, including Tiger Woods, Les Dawson and the cast of Are you being Served?.

After moving to the Devon town in 2013, Ray has fast become something of a local celebrity and loves being close to the sea and the countryside while immersing himself in all aspects of the local community.

The restaurant is open throughout the day and has many regular customers. It also opens at 5pm in the evening, so is an ideal pit stop for a pre-shows meal, with the Guildhall just a stones throw away.

The Mediterranean cuisine is prepared to order with locally sourced ingredients where possible and with a vast array of daily specials, offers something for everyone.

Ray said: "It's genuine food, real food and everything is fresh and cooked to order. Everything originates from the Mediterranean style of cuisine, with the seafood dishes perfected from years of catching fish and experimenting with fresh ingredients."

Be in with a chance of eating for free at Le Pisani!

Once a month on a day of Ray's choice, the entire restaurant will receive their meals FREE*. All you need to do is book a table by 5pm that evening.

Ray said: "I wanted to give something back to the community and thought this was something people would really enjoy."

Eyepwowed as Kiki shows she still has the music in her

IF YOU know the song 'I've Got The Music In Me,' the name that springs to mind has to be Kiki Dee.

Together with acoustic guitarist Carmelo Luggeri, she wowed the audience at the Eyep Centre for the Arts on Thursday, September 22nd.

There were virtuoso performances of blues and rock from original compositions, songs from the Everley Brothers to Kate Bush, with reworked versions of Kiki's earlier hits, including a new take on 'Don't Go Breaking My Heart' the song she recorded with Elton John in 1976 which topped the UK charts for six weeks.

Clever use of technology turned a single guitar into multiple instruments, and Kiki's voice soared to the roof, charming and engaging the audience in the intimate setting.

Kiki was the first British artist to be signed for Motown Records, has been a star for more than half a century, and proved beyond any doubt that she still has the music in her.

Eyep church is the venue for BridportLIVE concerts, all featuring well-known artists, including Sally Barker (The Voice finalist), Elijah Wolf, Anita Harris, and the famed guitarist John

SINGER Kiki Dee, in concert with guitarist Carmelo Luggeri, at Eyep Centre for the Arts

Williams, booking through to next March.

Follow them on Facebook, or check out their website www.bridportlive.co.uk.

Tickets are available from the website or from Bridport Music in South Street.

Demonstration by local artist launches society's new home

BRIDPORT Art Society's new season started well in its new setting of the Christian Fellowship Hall, with a talk by Caroline Ireland on 'Getting creative with pastel and charcoal'.

Caroline is a good friend of the society and creates works of great imagination from her studio in St Michael's Lane. As well as still life and landscapes, she produces colourful pieces of pure imagination, and it was these she endeavoured to explore, explaining the different results which can be achieved by using not only pastel paper, but paper with less texture such as ordinary printer paper or Ingres paper.

It is difficult to explain the intuitive method of producing an artwork, but Caroline put charcoal marks on the paper and demonstrated how, by seeing what those marks seem to represent, embellishing with charcoal and pastel until a picture emerges.

The treasurer, Denise Revy, thanked Caroline for her inspiring demonstration and outlined how much of a success the BAS's annual exhibition had been, thanking the arts centre for the work and effort which had gone in to completing work on their building so that it could take place.

The next demonstration at the Christian Fellowship Hall in East Street car park on October 27th at 7.30pm is, 'Taking the fear out of life drawing', by Roger Clemens, and all members and guests are welcome.

Celebrating Ella Fitzgerald in Bridport

PRAISED as the 'First Lady of Song', Ella Fitzgerald was a much loved jazz singer who applied her impeccable vocal style to many of the tunes which have become known as the 'Great American Songbook'. In what is approaching Ella's centenary year her inspirational singing will be celebrated by vocalist Maggie Reeday (who has appeared four times on ITV and sung for the BBC Radio Orchestra) and pianist Philip Clouts on Friday, October 14th at the Bridport Arts Centre Jazz Café.

Ella Fitzgerald was noted for her purity of tone, impeccable phrasing and intonation, and a "saxophone-like" improvisational ability, particularly in her 'scat' singing.

Fitzgerald had originally intended to go on stage as a dancer, but intimidated by a local dance duo called the Edwards Sisters, she opted to sing instead. She found musical success with the Chick Webb Orchestra, performing across the USA, but most often associated with the Savoy Ballroom in Harlem.

Later she built a solo career with esteemed record label Verve Records where she recorded some of her more widely noted works. While Fitzgerald appeared in movies and as a guest on popular television shows in the second half of the twentieth century, her musical collaborations with Louis Armstrong, Duke Ellington, and The Ink Spots were some of her most notable acts outside of her solo career.

Maggie Reeday is one of the country's finest vocalists, and has worked in both television and radio over the years, also with some of the greatest international jazz musicians.

Maggie's has an engaging style with the audience, and a wonderful sense of fun. She started her career as a vocalist with a local Exeter band and subsequently toured USA army bases in Germany. It was during this time that she was invited to appear on ITV's 'New Faces' for a total of four times. She subsequently appeared in a variety of shows for ITV and has sung both for the Scottish Radio Orchestra and the BBC Radio Orchestra.

Maggie's love affair with jazz standards began many years ago and she has earned an excellent reputation in that field working with very accomplished musicians. Her great sense of rhythm and natural ability to connect with her audiences has them shouting for more wherever she appears.

Maggie has garnered great reviews of her work: "Ms Reeday has all the ingredients that a jazz singer requires; good intonation, and a powerful voice with plenty in reserve if necessary." - Jazz Journal International

"Maggie sings good standard tunes almost exclusively and makes them her own with an intimate and appealing jazz influenced vocal style." - The Guardian

The Jazz Cafe on Friday, October 14th will to be a special night – expect to hear many favourites including 'How High the Moon' and 'The Lady is a Tramp'.

Live music is from 8pm, at Bridport Arts Centre, South Street. Tickets are £10, available by calling 01308 424204 or from www.bridport-arts.com.

The Fossil Lady of Lyme Comedy Grove presents Lyme Regis Comedy Club

IMAGINE: the world is only 6000 years old, and everything was created in six days. This was the England into which Mary Anning was born – just two hundred years ago.

Then came the pioneering work of geologists, studying rocks and fossils. The accepted truths about the world were blown apart; it became clear that there had been a vast prehistoric age, with unimaginable monsters roaming the earth and swimming in the seas. Mary Anning played a key part in these extraordinary times. She discovered the first complete fossil of a prehistoric reptile in Great Britain – at the age of twelve. Throughout her life, she continued to make ground-breaking and spectacular discoveries.

In Alison Neil's highly entertaining play, Mary Anning tells her fascinating story, and that of "the fine clever men of science" who took most of the credit for her work. The tale of her life, her friendships, her struggle to make her mark (and put food on the table) is both amusing and moving.

And... by the end of the show, you will surely know the difference between an ichthyosaur and a plesiosaur!

As part of Earth Science Week, the Lyme Regis Fossil Festival team is promoting this fantastic, one women play by Alison Neil, see alisonneil.co.uk for further information.

The Fossil Lady of Lyme comes to The Hub, Church Street, Lyme Regis, DT7 3DB on Saturday, October 15th at 7.30pm. Tickets £10 for adults, Under 18's £7.50. Tickets available from Lyme Regis Tourist Information office – 01297 442138.

THE MARINE Theatre is set to host Lyme Regis Comedy Club, presented by Comedy Grove, this Saturday, October 8th.

MC for the night is North Devon Stand Up Comedian Luke Honnoraty. Luke is a confident, engaging performer who's skilled story telling is sure to captivate any crowd and he handles dark topics with a charismatic delicacy, performed with a cheeky, personable delivery.

With his stories on life and embarrassing moments combined with his infectious personality, his brand of comedy is easily identifiable, which leaves you feeling like you've known him for years. A truly natural and gifted comedian who makes you feel most comfortable talking about the most uncomfortable subjects; the way in which he communicates such topics whilst making you fall further in love with his boyish charm is all part of the Honnoraty experience.

Support comes from Steve Day, and Wayne The Weird.

Steve Day is a truly unique comedian – warm, witty and engaging whilst dealing with the dilemmas of being a deaf man in a hearing world. Steve went on his first national tour back in 2006, and has since been performing across the world to critical acclaim

Master of stupidity and nonchalance Wayne The Weird has been entertaining audiences with his conjuring comedy up, down, left and right of the British Isles for over 2 years now.

Headliner Duncan Oakley – with musical skills that would easily fit into many rock bands – performs an infectious mix of musical comedy and stand up with one of his trusty guitars by his side. With an eye and ear for the silly, rude, playful and downright irritating occurrences of life Duncan musters up songs that not only make you laugh, they bury into the recesses of your mind and find you a humming tune with a smile on your face three days later, confused and wondering where it's come from. Duncan has performed for nearly 10 years on the stand up circuit and performs regularly at some of the UK's bigger weekend clubs as well as festivals, and Uni gigs. A talented all-round musician Duncan can also perform with harmonica, drums & piano as a one man musical whirlwind.

Doors open at 7.15pm, with comedy from 8pm. All tickets are £10, available by calling 01297 442138 or from www.marinetheatre.com. The show is suitable for ages 16+

Get 'Cosi' as new season of opera kicks off at Bridport Arts Centre

A NEW season of Opera begins at Bridport Arts Centre with a screening of the Royal Opera House's Così fan Tutte on Tuesday, October 18th, 6pm.

Semyon Bychov conduct a cast of young up and coming talent including American soprano Corinne Winter in a new production of Mozart's opera on the nature of love.

How much do you love your partner? How much do you trust them? And can they trust you? Mozart's classic opera Così fan tutte puts two pairs of lovers to the test – with great music but distinctly unexpected results.

For this new production, director Jan Philipp Gloger creates a richly theatrical world as the playground for this quirky comedy, where two men try to woo each other's partners for a bet. Don Alfonso – the puppet master of this experiment in love – is here a theatre director who uses all the sets, props and tricks of his trade to invent new scenes to challenge the lovers' affections.

This lively, youthful and imaginative take on one of the world's best-loved operas is performed by a cast of rising stars conducted by Semyon Bychov.

An unmissable opportunity to see world class opera with all the convenience of your local venue! The season continues with Don Giovanni and Anastasia next month.

Tickets are £17 / £14 from www.bridport-arts.com or by calling 01308 424204.

Spoken word master Murray at Bridport Arts Centre

PREPARE for an evening of satirical soliloquy, rock-n-roll reverie and ditty as BBC6 music resident poet Murray Lachlan Young presents his stunning new live up-close and personal show.

Murray's shows are a delightful and satirical romp into the bizarre facets of fame, fashion, people, politics, a mild erotic folk ballad and the space-time continuum. This is unique stand up poetry/spoken word performance, from one of the very best in the business.

Murray heads out on tour drawing and performing material from his new hard-back collection: How Freakin' Zeitgeist Are You? along with much loved live favourites from BBC Radio.

Fresh from summer festival appearances at Glastonbury, WOMAD, Cornbury, and Port Eliot and Festival No 6, Murray kicks off October with a show at the Bridport Arts Centre.

Murray said: "In peoples minds Bridport fits neatly into that group of towns known as the muesli underground. Places of liberal thought where the occasional chillum appears from a sarong. If you go to Womad Festival you can see them all in one field."

"I like Womad and I like Bridport. Occasionally, when visiting, I have to listen to AC/DC quite loud as an antidote but I'm OK with that and I know Bridport is too."

Murray Lachlan Young is an acclaimed playwright, actor, screen-writer and poet -extraordinaire. Celebrated for his hybrid mix of stand-up comedy with delightful commentaries on the bizarreness of contemporary life, so expect flamboyant, punchy wit, brooding subtext and empathetic humour. Mick Jagger recently presented Keith Richards with a CD of Murray's poem, marking the anniversary of Keith falling out of a coconut tree.

Murray Lachlan Young performs at Bridport Arts Centre on Friday, October 21st at 8pm.

Tickets cost £12 (£10 concessions) and are available from www.bridport-arts.com or by calling 01308 424204.

Hard Times and Hard Travelin'

Will Kaufman brings his 'live documentary' on Woody Guthrie to Bridport

WILL KAUFMAN will be bringing his captivating show Woody Guthrie: Hard Times & Hard Travelin' to Bridport Arts Centre on Saturday, October 8th. Kaufman describes the show as a "live documentary" performing and elaborating on the songs of Woody Guthrie and their context of the American 1930s and the state of popular music itself.

Woody Guthrie - the American folk singer and champion of the working class who famously inspired Bob Dylan - is a fascinating subject for a show. The songs are great, "This Land Is Your Land" is even considered the US's second national anthem, but the stories behind them and his life are equally captivating. Kaufman performs the songs with great panache, playing the guitar, banjo and violin with enviable skill. Such hard-hitting Guthrie songs as "Vigilante Man", "Pretty Boy Floyd" and "I Ain't Got No Home" are brought into conversation with other relevant songs - from Joe Hill's "The Preacher and the Slave" to "Brother, Can You Spare a Dime?". Altogether the show highlights the blending of music and radical politics that marks Guthrie's most powerful work.

Will Kaufman, as well as being a singer and multi-instrumentalist is a Professor of American Literature and Culture at the University of Central Lancashire in Preston, England. He has given his Woody Guthrie presentations at such major events as the Glastonbury Festival, the Bath International Music Festival, the Whitby Folk Festival, the Big Session, and the Piacenza Literature and Blues Festival in Italy. He has also performed at countless European and American universities, folk clubs and union halls. Will has written a number of books on American culture and in 2008 Will was awarded his first Woody Guthrie Research Fellowship from the Broadcast Music Industry Foundation, which enabled him to write the first political biography of Guthrie, Woody Guthrie, American Radical (Illinois, 2011). He won his second BMI-Woody Guthrie Fellowship in 2014 and his is currently at work on a second book, Woody Guthrie's Modern World Blues. He was consultant to Johnny Depp and Douglas Brinkley for the publication of their co-edited edition of Guthrie's recently discovered novel, House of Earth (2013).

Will Kaufman's Woody Guthrie: Hard Times & Hard Travelin' comes to Bridport Arts Centre on Saturday, October 8th at 7.30pm. Tickets are £12 and £10, available online at www.bridport-arts.com or by calling 01308 424204

KENNETH Branagh stars in John Osborne's modern classic The Entertainer, set against the dying days of the music hall. Kenneth Branagh's ambitious year-long residence at the Garrick Theatre got off to a flying start with the artistic and commercial triumph of The Winter's Tale with Judi Dench. The first of three plays to be broadcast live to cinemas, it took £1.6 million at the UK box office.

Now Branagh's first season concludes with John Osborne's follow-up to his groundbreaking Look Back in Anger. This has at its centre the memorably sad, middle-aged figure of fading music-hall star Archie Rice, whose failing career is set against the backdrop of post-Colonial decline and personal tragedy. Archie was famously played by Laurence Olivier in the original production at the Royal Court Theatre in 1957. Branagh himself has frequently been compared to Olivier, so anticipation will be at fever pitch when he takes on this iconic role in his artistic associate Rob Ashford's production.

Tickets £12.50 advance, £15 on the door. Box Office 01297 625699 & website ticketshop. The performance will be shown on Thursday, October 27th. Doors open 6.30pm Performance starts 7.00pm. Licensed bar & refreshments.

IN A seaside town where business and mafia are flourishing, The Golden Age cabaret is the favorite nightly haunt of dancers, bandits and young revelers, where the young fisherman Boris falls in love with Rita, a beautiful dancer, but also the friend of a local gangster. A satire of Europe during the Roaring 20s, The Golden Age makes for an original, colorful, and dazzling show with its jazzy score and music-hall atmosphere. This ballet that can only be seen at the Bolshoi has everything to it: mad rhythms, vigorous chase scenes, and decadent cabaret numbers. With its passionate love story featuring beautiful duets between Boris and Rita, the Bolshoi dancers plunge into every stylized step and gesture magnificently.

Music Dmitri Shostakovich. Choreography Yuri Grigorovich. Libretto Yuri Grigorovich and Isaak Glikman. Cast The Bolshoi Principals, Soloists and Corps de Ballet.

The performance will be show on Thursday, October 18th. Doors open 6.30pm performance 7.00pm. Running time 2hrs 20min approx. Licensed bar & refreshments.

Tickets £15 adv from box office (or £17.50 otd) 01297 625699 or website ticket shop.

Award-winning stand-ups at the Pilot Boat

A HOST of award winning and critically acclaimed comedy talent are at the Pilot Boat Inn in Lyme Regis this weekend with a special guest appearance from one of Dorset's best loved cult comedians.

The regular comedy night, hosted by local comic and resident MC Tom Glover, will be headlined by Welsh TV regular and one of the stars of ITV's 'Show me the Funny', Ignacio Lopez.

A regular on the international comedy circuit and festival scene, Ignacio combines observational comedy with funny songs and one liners and is back to Dorset by popular demand after a brilliant support spot for Angela Barnes at the Bridport Arts Centre earlier this year.

Also appearing on the show will be the recently crowned BBC New Comedy Award winner, Jethro Bradley. Jethro beat thousands of new acts to the title which he won at the Edinburgh festival in a show played out live on BBC Radio 4.

Opening the show will be the erudite and cutting Chris Chopping, a master of finding the funny in the minutiae of life and of the best young talents on the circuit today. Completing the show will be new act James Dunn, who is currently working on his first debut solo show, and Dorset comedy legend Bentley.

Bentley singe handedly created a south west comedy scene back in the 90s gigging alongside some of the biggest names in comedy. Bentley will be coming out of retirement for a special guest spot at this week's show with a 15 minute set of some of his best loved material.

"This will be our busiest and best show to date," said Tom.

"The array of talent on show is incredible and we are catching some of these guys just as they're about to take off on the comedy circuit. I hope to see our regular crowd attending as they always do and I hope some new faces decide to give it a shot. I compile all the line ups myself and they feature the best local and national talent on the circuit and I love being able to host it in my local area."

Tickets for the show are £8 and are available on the door. However, to avoid disappointment, you are advised to get your tickets in advance direct from the Pilot Boat Inn or reserve them on 01297 443157.

SYMONDS & SAMPSON'S - LOCAL AND NATIONAL PRESS WITH REGARD TO HIS FISHING EXPLOITS

Symonds & Sampson
ESTABLISHED 1858

JEREMY SMITH, who is a Partner at Symonds & Sampson's award winning Beaminster property, is well known for selling lots of property, but has equally featured in local and national press with regard to his fishing exploits!

This year has been something of a golden year for Jeremy as not only has he caught his first double figure brown trout but also caught personal best Carp, Tarpon, Permit and Amberjack! However, recently Jeremy's year got even better as he explained. 'Whilst I have caught lots of big trout over the years, my personal best rainbow trout was set way back in 1995 at Tolpuddle lakes where I believe it is still the fishery record. Having caught a huge 17lb 10oz brown trout early this year, my goal was very much to break my current rainbow trout record of 15lb 10oz. I had heard through the fishing grape vine that Blakewell fishery in Barnstaple was producing some large trout, so decided to pop down there for a morning session recently. There were quite a few anglers on the lake, however, they were what we call 'casting blind' where I prefer to stalk individual fish. I spent the first hour looking around the lake, then I finally spotted a large rainbow trout sitting close to the bank. After a few casts I was able to tempt it ending in a new personal best of 16lb 7oz!

Having had photographs taken I still had a few fish to catch on my limit, so I went back to have another look around and after a further forty-five minutes I spotted a very good size fish hiding under a tree. This fish proved very difficult to tempt, but after an hour of patience I was able to persuade the fish to take my goldhead damselfly. Following a further 10 - 12 minute fight another very large rainbow trout was on the bank, and I wondered if it would beat the previous best, set earlier that day. To my amazement the scales went down to 18lb 2oz, so having waited twenty years to beat my personal best trout I had beaten it twice in the same day!

It was a wonderful day for me and I trust your readers will be interested in these two catches.

5 TIPS FOR WINDOW PRIVACY

By Julia Gray, Press Association

1. It can be fiddly and frustrating to fit, but frosted window film gives a smart, contemporary finish both inside and out. The effect is the same in daylight and at night when the light's on in a room, giving you total privacy. The main disadvantage is that you can't see through the film, so while people outside can't see in, you can't see out either. Frosted film works well on sash windows when confined to the lower window, but if you don't have sashes, you can just frost the lower part of the glass. Another option is having a design, such as rows of cut-out circles or squares, incorporated into the film, which makes it more interesting and allows you to see out (and people outside to see in) a little. However, patterned film is more expensive and harder to fit than plain.

2. Blinds are another popular solution to privacy problems. Although quite costly, bottom-up blinds are ideal. These are roller blinds that go up from the window sill, rather than down from the top of the window, so you can cover as much of the glass as you want. Go for a sheer fabric and you'll be able to see out, but people outside won't be able to see in - unless the light's on.

3. Standard roller blinds are often a cheaper option, but even a fairly see-through white or cream fabric will cut out light if you have the blinds down during the day. However, this may not matter in a really light and sunny room, and may even make the room more pleasant to be in when it's hot and sunny.

4. Venetian blinds provide privacy during the day (as long as the slats are angled the right way) and at night (as long as the slats are closed), although they do cut out some daylight. If you have small children, consider fitting Swish Cordless Metal Venetian Blinds (from £25 for Silver, John Lewis), which are safer because they don't have dangling cords, and give the window an uncluttered look.

5. Slatted shutters are similar to Venetian blinds and although they're usually expensive, have become popular in recent years. Shutters are fitted to the window and so block out more light than blinds when the slats are closed (if the shutters cover the whole window). They also let in less light when the slats are open because they have frames around them, but they do look great. Shutters come in different colours, materials, styles and sizes, so you can customise them to your taste and home - and they should add value.

Generation EQ - mobility revisited

With "Generation EQ", Mercedes-Benz shows how electric cars can soon move into the fast lane: the concept vehicle, with the appearance of a sporty SUV coupé, gives a preview of a new generation of vehicles with battery-electric drives. The dynamic exterior design with its new electro-look underlines the focus on the powerful electric drive system: two electric motors, with a system output that can be increased to up to 300 kW thanks to scalable battery components, and permanent all-wheel drive deliver the guarantee of dynamic high-level performance. With a range of up to 500 kilometres and the typical Mercedes strengths of safety, comfort, functionality and connectivity, "Generation EQ" meets every demand in terms of contemporary, sustainable mobility. Also on the inside, the vehicle offers innovative solutions, including a completely new interior concept. Celebrating its world premiere at the Paris Motor Show, "Generation EQ" is the forerunner of Mercedes-Benz's new product brand for electric mobility, EQ. The name EQ stands for "Electric Intelligence" and is derived from the Mercedes-Benz brand values of "Emotion and Intelligence".

"The mobility of the future at Mercedes-Benz will stand on four pillars: Connected, Autonomous, Shared and Electric. 'Generation EQ' is the logical fusion of all four pil-

Electric-vehicle architecture for all models

The new generation of electric vehicles will be based on an architecture developed specifically for battery-electric models, which is scalable in every respect and usable across all models: the wheelbase and track width as well as all other system components, especially the batteries, are variable thanks to the modular building-block system. The vehicle concept is thus optimised to meet every requirement of a future-oriented, battery-electric model family. The basic architecture is suitable for SUVs, saloons, coupés, cabriolets and other model series.

Similar to the latest series-produced models from Mercedes-Benz, the vehicle architecture builds on an intelligent multi-material mix of steel, aluminium and carbon fibre. This ensures that the requirements in terms of lightweight design, strength and cost efficiency are ideally met.

Exterior design with new electro-look
"Generation EQ is hot and cool," says Gor-

den Wagener, Head of Design at Daimler AG. "Its fascination lies in a reinterpretation of our design philosophy of sensual purity, the aim being to create an avant-garde, contemporary and distinctive electro-look. At the same time, the design of the visionary show car, which has been reduced to the essentials, reveals an alluring progressivity."

The monolithic basic form of "Generation EQ" unites the genes of an SUV with the dynamic character of a coupé and a dash of shooting brake at the rear end. The squat, elongated greenhouse gives rise to muscular-purist proportions. The new electro-look is the result of a flowing transition from the gleaming black bonnet across the windscreen to the dark-tinted panoramic roof - an exciting contrast to the alubeam silver paintwork.

Scarcely visible body panel joins, concealed windscreen wipers, cameras instead of exterior mirrors and an absence of conventional door handles emphasise the stretched, dynamic silhouette, making the SUV crossover appear as a unified whole while reducing its air resistance. An intentionally reduced side view, broad shoulders and large 21-inch light-alloy wheels make for a dynamic presence even before the vehicle moves off.

Driver-oriented cockpit with new electro-look

The focus of the driver-oriented cockpit is on simple, touch-based controls with a new electro-look consistently reflecting the exterior styling. The asymmetrical design of the instrument panel with its large, floating wide-screen display is tailored to the driver. The innovative, digital user experience differentiates "Generation EQ" from the familiar control logic in today's vehicles, while giving a peek into the future of user interaction at Mercedes-Benz.

Avant-garde, functional interior

"Generation EQ" comes with four individual seats. The reduced volume, impression of floating in space and avant-garde seat upholstery layout make for a visual lightness. A tailored sound experience is provided by speakers integrated into the head restraints. The side bolsters are covered in light-white leather, while perforations with a pixel rain look reveal a view of particles in rose gold. Stitching with a PCB look on the deep-brown centre sections produces an exciting contrast. TFT monitors for rear-seat entertainment are integrated into the front backrests.

Presenting the all-new Q5 - the fifth element for Audi at Paris

HAVING already set the tone as a paragon of Vorsprung durch Technik and a long-standing best seller, the Audi Q5 is to be replaced by an all-new successor that is set to make its world debut at the Paris Motor Show. Its ground-up rework brings with it an intense focus on connectivity, driver assistance, aeroacoustics and driving dynamics. True to form, it sets new standards in its segment and steps up the game yet again.

"The first Audi Q5 was for many years the world's best-selling SUV in its class. It was no easy task to design its successor, but that is precisely why it is so very exciting," says Rupert Stadler, Chairman of the Board of Management at AUDI AG. "With the new Q5 we are setting the bar a notch higher. Among the great innovations are the quattro drive system with ultra technology, highly efficient engines, the air suspension with damper control and a comprehensive line-up of infotainment and assistance systems."

The new SUV from Audi takes a defined and taut stance. A sculpturally flared Singleframe grille with a solid frame dominates its aerodynamically flat front end. It is available with Xenon headlights as standard and either LED or high-resolution Matrix LED with dynamic indicators as options.

Typically Audi: quattro design language

A distinctively curved and strongly undercut shoulder line gives structure to the side view. The strongly emphasised wheel arches are a reference to the quattro permanent all-wheel drive system, and the low greenhouse tapers back down early. Just as at the front, horizontal lines at the rear convey an image of width and presence. The tail lights are also available with optional dynamic indicators. The tailgate wraps around the C-pillars – a typical feature of the Q models from Audi. A diffuser insert integrates the exhaust tailpipes.

High-end option: the infotainment modules

The Audi phone box connects smartphones to the vehicle's antenna for optimal reception quality; it also charges smartphones inductively according to the Qi standard. The Bang & Olufsen Sound System with innovative 3D sound introduces the spatial dimension of height. The Audi tablet, which is also new, serves as a flexible Rear Seat Entertainment device. The Audi smartphone interface also brings Apple CarPlay and Android Auto into the new Q5.

Powerful and efficient: TDI and TFSI engines

The new Audi Q5 is launching in the UK with a powerful 2.0 TDI engine producing 190PS. Fuel consumption for this model has been significantly reduced. Soon after the launch a 2.0 TFSI engine will also be available. The further developed 2.0 TFSI has an output of 252PS, yet it returns up to 41.5mpg combined, which equates to 154 grams CO2 per km. The also intensively revised 3.0 TDI, coming at a later date, increases output to 286PS with 620Nm (457.3 lb ft) of torque.

Resolving contradictions: the chassis

The new Audi Q5 enables handling that combines very different strengths – it is sporty while being extremely comfortable. Creating the basis for this are the newly developed five-link suspensions and also the new electromechanical power steering system. Dynamic steering is available as an option; it varies its gear ratio according to the driving speed and steering angle.

Customers can choose from two extension stages of springs and damping. The chassis with damper control offers a very wide spread between comfort and dynamics, which the driver can select via Audi drive select. In addition to adjusting damper control, the new adaptive air suspension can be used to vary the ride height of the car body over five stages.

In the standard system, Audi drive select, which accesses various technical modules, the driver can select one of as many as seven driving modes. The two new modes, lift/offroad and allroad, emphasise the offroad character of the Audi Q5 optimally.

The new Audi SUV comes from the factory with 18-inch alloy wheels. The Sport equipment line comes with 18-inch wheels, and the S line package with 19-inch wheels. Wheels up to 21 inches in diameter are available as options.

The new Audi Q5 is manufactured at a newly constructed plant in Mexico. It will arrive at Audi Centres in the UK in the spring of 2017.

New SEAT Ateca holds the clues to #missingcar TV mystery

TAKING the spotlight in a series of intriguing "Missing Car" mysteries this autumn and winter, the new SEAT Ateca is set to turn TV viewers into amateur sleuths. Three different scenarios will be played out week by week in the latest development of SEAT's sponsorship of ITV's original mystery drama programming, engaging the audience in an unfolding story and the special qualities of SEAT's first SUV.

The mini-dramas will unfold in a sequence of events that will appear during transmissions of some of the UK's top-rated series, including new seasons of Broadchurch, Vera and Endeavour.

Each Missing Car story will start with a SEAT Ateca being left in mysterious circumstances in a location familiar from Broadchurch, Vera and The Level. Gradually clues will be revealed in and around the car, building the mystery and suspense until the final reveal. High production values ensure the events have all the quality look and appeal of an authentic drama serial.

A dedicated ITV Drama content hub within www.seat.co.uk will offer more interactive features, interviews and behind-the-scenes stories, plus competitions with weekly prizes, including "money-can't-buy" exclusives such as a spy weekend in Washington DC, signed scripts or a walk-on part in Vera.

Andrew Tracey, Head of Marketing, SEAT UK, said: "This is a great way of extending our successful relationship with ITV's highest quality programming, while putting the new Ateca firmly at the centre of the story during its first months on sale in the UK.

"By taking the story further using social media, the web and marketing programmes, we will create extra layers of engagement that will increase awareness of the new Ateca and what it has to offer in terms of quality, performance and equipment."

Launched in the UK this month, the new Ateca marks SEAT's foray into the compact SUV market. Having already collected Auto Express's Best Crossover accolade and a top five-star safety rating from Euro NCAP, it bears all the winning hallmarks of SEAT style, high levels of quality and technology, a rewarding driving experience and excellent value for money.

Dacia: Introducing the new Sandero, Sandero Stepway and Logan MCV

DACIA has refreshed the design of its three signature models: the Sandero, Sandero Stepway, Logan MCV and, in certain European markets, Logan. A wide range of engine options (including the new SCe 75) is also available, along with a choice of three stacked rectangles. The design of the front and rear lights has been revised. The front LED daytime running lights feature a pattern of three stacked rectangles. The rear lighting signature is based on three illuminated squares.

New Sandero, Sandero Stepway and Logan MCV... always more

Dacia has refreshed the exterior and interior design of its three signature models, namely the Logan MCV, the Sandero and the Sandero Stepway. These enhancements embody Dacia's new, more assertive and even more modern lighting signature.

Exterior styling: even more modern and attractive

Dacia design is on the move. The models display a new lighting signature front and rear for an even more dynamic, contemporary look. The design of the front and rear lights has been revised. The front LED daytime running lights feature a pattern of three stacked rectangles. The rear lighting signature is based on three illuminated squares.

The new Logan MCV and the new Sandero all share a more modern front bumper design, along with chrome detailing for the air intake grille. Meanwhile, the design of the front and rear bumpers has been reworked to emphasise the models' muscular stance.

These design enhancements are shown to particularly powerful effect on the new Sandero Stepway. This model has a new frontal identity which picks up on the design cues of the Duster. The grille elegantly combines the black tones of the bumper with chrome detailing which brings an even more dynamic touch to the vehicle's nose. At the rear, a chromed exhaust tailpipe highlights the car's tough, ready-for-action character.

Last but not least, the brand's range of wheel trims and alloy wheels has been updated (depending on individual markets and models).

Status-enhancing interior

The cabins of the new models have been upgraded, too, including a more elegant and more contemporary satin-effect chrome finish for the air vent surrounds, trim strip and centre console fascia. The new four-spoke steering wheel has the horn push in the centre and proudly displays the Dacia logo. The steering wheel on high-end versions stands out through its exclusive Soft Feel finish that is both durable and pleasant to the touch.

On the new Sandero Stepway, the interior door releases are now chrome plated. Models across the range come with new upholstery fabrics with textures and patterns that convey both a fresher feel and an impression of comfort. The upholstery of new Sandero Stepway features a 3D weave for a greater sensation of depth, enhanced by top-stitching.

Even more extensively equipped but still at an affordable price

The new Logan MCV, new Sandero and new Sandero Stepway feature new driver aids designed to make driving even easier and more practical. A reversing camera (depending on version) and Hill Start Assist simplify manoeuvring and, in response to customer feedback, Dacia has relocated the front and rear electric window switches to the door panels. For the driver, the window switch has a handy one-touch function, while comfort is further enhanced by a retractable armrest incorporated into the driver's seat (depending on version).

The cabin is as spacious as ever and even more practical thanks numerous stowage spaces, including a front mobile phone cubby hole and a tray on the side of the console to accommodate small items. The new centre console design incorporates a bottle holder at the rear. Also new is a 12-volt power socket which allows rear passengers to charge mobile devices.

A new engine, the SCe 75

Seven different powertrains are available from launch, including the new, Euro 6-compliant SCe 75. This 75-horsepower, three-cylinder, 1.0-litre unit has benefited from Renault's expertise. The result is a CO2 emissions and fuel consumption saving of almost 10 per cent.

Dacia offers a broad range of engine-transmission combinations:

Petrol: SCe 75 / TCe 90 with Stop&Start (S&S) / TCe 90 S&S LPG / TCe 90 S&S mated to Easy-R automated manual transmission.

Diesel: dCi 75 S&S / dCi 90 S&S with either a manual gearbox or Easy-R automated manual transmission.

Mark Frowde Memorial Trophy
LYME REGIS 2 STURMINSTER NEWTON UTD 5
HAVING been awarded the honour of one of only two teams from across the whole county to be invited to take part in this showpiece match, Lyme Regis fully played their part before finally being succumbing to their Dorset Premier Division opponents.

The teams stood for the national anthem before being introduced to the guest of honour Martin Glenn the CEO of the Football Association who had obviously had a trying week following the shock sacking of England manager Sam Allardyce.

Mr Glenn told View Sports: "It's really nice to get away from London and into the heart of the country to be involved in some pure grassroots football."

The opening half hour of the match failed to produce any clear-cut chances although Kieren Daniels and Cody Bowditch, making his full debut in a Lyme shirt after a brief spell with South West Peninsula League outfit Sidmouth Town, both had half chances as Lyme shaded it.

But they fell behind slightly against the run of play in the 31st minute to a Harry McGrath goal, and were unlucky not to concede again when a scorching half volley struck the angle.

Lyme keeper Lee Cleal was then called into action with a fine double save but a misunderstanding soon after saw Stur go 2-0 up through Jamie Danoris with the Seasiders' defence in disarray.

They managed to pull one back when Julien Simier slotted home after a good link up with Mark Bailey.

But the killer third came right on the stroke of half time when a long ball into the box was headed home by an unmarked Darren Spiller.

The Seasiders grabbed a foothold soon after the turnaround when Rob Fellingham's free kick from way out wide was glanced home by Chris Herbst.

But hopes of a fight back were extinguished in the 66th minute by a towering header from a corner by Neil Sweatman that made it 4-2.

The scoring was completed a minute later when an Elliott Eavis' lob from out wide caught Cleal in no-man's land.

Sturminster should have added to their tally several times in the last 15 minutes, but Cleal redeemed his earlier error with a string of astonishing saves that kept the final score line down.

But the evening proved to be a wonderful experience for both teams, in particular the seven teenagers in the Lyme Regis squad.
Lyme Regis (442); Lee Cleal, Chris Herbst, Kingsley Wellman (Gary Knight 61), Matt Laing (Capt), Luke Clifton, Rob Fellingham, Kieren Daniels (Tyrone Ruth 68), Cody Bowditch, Declis Ellis, Mark Bailey, Julien Simier (Jonny Day 75). Unused subs; Stefan Taylor, Cameron Fowler.

Devon & Exeter League Division Six
LYME Regis Reserves had few problems as they continued their march up the Division Six table with a third consecutive victory.

"It was a very poor pitch and we should have a few more, Will Meech our keeper had barely anything to do other than keep warm," said Lyme manager Gerard Hitchcock.

Several chances had come and gone before a Matt Thomas shot from the edge of the area squirmed its way into the net for the popular midfielder's first goal of the season.

The lead was doubled early in the second half when a neat move involving Mark Bailey and Tyrone Ruth culminated in Fred Thomson sweeping the ball home from six-yards out.

Thomson then added his second and the team's third and the points were in the bag.

Defender Ally Rattenbury rounded things off when the home keeper made a hash of his swerving free-kick.

PERRY STREET LEAGUE
DAISY HUTCHINGS CUP - L16
WINSHAM UTD RES (D2) 1 UPLYME (D1) 4
UPLYME secured their place in the last eight with a fine first half showing that had them 3-0 in front with just half an hour played.

Uplyme started sluggishly and had to rely on keeper Marcus Bearpark to keep the score level with a couple of early saves.

However, with six minutes on the clock Dan Boot pulled the ball back for Lloyd Cleal to slide it home. The Swallows then dictated the play, frustrating the opposition in the process.

With 24 minutes gone, Jake Bearpark was brought down on the edge of the box and Steve Batey slotted home the resulting free-kick.

The third came soon after and was almost a carbon copy of the first. This time it was Aaron Cleal who chased down a lost cause and pulled the ball back for Boot to score a deserved goal.

Uplyme then took their foot off 'the gas' and Ryan Cox pulled one back for the hosts to make it 3-1.

But this woke The Swallows from their slumbers and Aaron Cleal turned provider again with a long throw which was headed home by Jon Davies.

Winsh improved after the interval and both sides had chances to add to the scoreline but the game finished 4-1.

◆ DESPERATE DEFENDING: Action from West & Middle Chinno (yellow) v Beaminster.

PREMIER

WINSHAM Utd's lead at the top was cut to just two points after they suffered their first defeat of the season – a 2-1 reverse at the hands of South Petherton at Lightgate Lane.

Pethy took the lead midway through the first half through Shane Adcock-Case but the visitors leveled soon after when Bradley Masters headed in.

Mark Nelms grabbed what proved to be the winner in the second-half. Beaminster underlined their title credentials with a fine 4-0 win over West & Middle Chinno at Oxleaze.

Murray Legg fired the visitors ahead in the 19th minute and Rich Hebditch made it 2-0 with half an hour on the clock.

The Chinn's were then reduced to 10 men when Matt Harvey was shown a second yellow card by referee John Boulton.

Russell Legg scored the pick of the goals early in the second half when showed good chest control before smashing the ball home.

Hebditch made it 4-0 with Beaminster manager Gordy Childs picking out Russell Legg, Josh Baker and Ash Walkey, back after a spell with Bridport, as his top performers.

Down at the bottom Drimpton are still chasing their first points after a 5-2 home defeat by Combe Reserves.

"We were a bit unlucky, we just couldn't put our chances away," said Drimpton boss Mark Pearce.

Chris Rowsell and an OG gave the Greens hope but these were snuffed out by Ricardo Silva who bagged four for the Saints.

Despite scoring their first league goal and taking the lead, Netherbury were unable to hold off a much changed Shepton team.

The Ambers started well and took the lead when Pete Ellingham went on a barnstorming run from midfield, dribbling past two defenders and then the keeper to make after 14 minutes.

Shepton grew into the game and had the hosts under pressure for the last 20-25 minutes of the first half. This included them hitting the crossbar and forcing keeper Charlie Morgan to make two excellent one-on-one saves.

But the Ambers could not hold out until half time and in the 45th minute, Aaron Stayner curled in a quality left footed freekick into the top corner.

Netherbury altered their shape and had all the play in the opening 10 minutes of the game, so it was blow when Shepton were awarded a penalty in the 55th minute when Steve Symonds left a leg out.

Ben Pitman converted the spot kick and George Pugson went close to adding a third when he struck the crossbar for a second time.

But despite two fine further fine saves from MoM Morgan, Shepton clinched the when Brad Pitman set up Pugson.

"The goal just before half time was hard to take, but I felt we had a chance to get something from the game even at 2-1, but the third game was a killer" said Netherbury Joint Manager James Sayers.

DIVISION ONE

COMBE A 0 WAYTOWN HOUNDS 2

WITH a number of players missing Waytown were still able to put out a strong starting 11 thanks to the depth of their squad.

The opening exchanges were scrappy and Combe nearly went ahead after 15 mins, but keeper Lee Cuff was on hand to make a decent save.

The Hounds settled and Jon Legg ran onto a lovely through ball to lob the advancing keeper to open the scoring.

The Hounds were quite comfortable in the second half as Combe rarely threatened. Legg was able to double the lead pouncing on a poor pass to tap home.

Waytown created further chances, just not able to finish them. There was even time for Manager Joe Carter to have a cameo following an injury to Sam Dowle who had a great game at left back.

Tom Franklin's hard work and vision in centre midfield earned Carter's MoM award.

DIVISION TWO

FARWAY UTD 2 CHARMOUTH 1

TWO goals in the last 15 minutes saw Farway United come from behind to beat Charmouth 2-1 in the Division Two match at Eastlea Park.

Brian Seward fired the Robins ahead but a Kristen Knight rocket from the edge of the area leveled things up. Farway then missed a golden chance to edge in front when Ernie Stobbs' penalty was well saved by Charmouth keeper Kierran Bearpark. But Brad King popped up with the winner three minutes from time.

DIVISION THREE

Merriott Dynamos 5 Lyme Rovers 5

THERE was 10-goal thriller at the Merriott Recreation Ground where Lyme Rovers led 3-1 with an hour gone but in the end were grateful for a Pete Peacock penalty deep into stoppage time at the end of the match to salvage a point.

Lyme opened the scoring in the seventh minute when Peacock shot low into the corner after good work from youngster Ryan King.

But the lead lasted barely a minute when a deflected shot gave stand-in keeper Andrew Tomkins no chance.

Tomkins suffered a groin strain soon after and was left hobbling for the remainder of the match.

A great pass from new skipper Jedd Whittington saw Peacock through to make it 2-1 on the half hour and Lyme carried the lead into the break.

The Seasiders extended their advantage a minute after the turnaround when the pass of the match from Jim Larcombe sent Peacock galloping clear and the striker made no mistake.

Larcombe was then in action at the other end with a goal line block, but the Dynamos weren't to be denied and they pulled one back from the penalty spot after referee Tim Paul spotted a trip.

And the man in the middle pointed the spot three minutes later, this time at the other end, when Batey was pushed over in the area. Teenage winger King stepped up but couldn't repeat his successful spot kick from last week and Dynamos keeper Ross Wetherall saved well.

This deflated Lyme, and the hosts struck twice to lead 4-3 only for Batey to net with a fine looping header from a Larcombe free-kick.

Merriott thought they'd snatched it when Tomkins was beaten for a fifth time in the 84th minute but The Seasiders had other ideas; Batey had a back post volley stopped on the line by a defender, and seconds later was then felled in the box for a second time. Up stepped Peacock to drill in the penalty high into the roof of net with virtually the last kick of the match for his 140th goal for the club.

Batey was awarded manager Terry White's vote for Man-of-the-Match.

Blues hit by lack of numbers

SATURDAY saw Bridport's inconsistent start to the season continued with an away defeat at New Milton. Second writes Andrew Livingston.

They looked to build on the previous home win, however the Blues came unstuck as they took only 15 players to face a New Milton side that had won their first two games.

Bridport had the better start as Daragh McLoughlin looked to be in for the first try. Tom East received a huge hit but kept the ball in play with an offload to full-back Rich Pearce who broke the line from half way.

McLoughlin supported Pearce well and took the ball onwards only to loose possession on the line after a last ditch cover tackle.

However, the resulting New Milton scrum was rushed by the Bridport forwards pack and a penalty was awarded which Mitch Waters converted to put Bridport in front.

New Milton slowly began to grow into the game, camping in the visitors 22 and eventually a grubber kick was not cleared up allowing the New Milton wing to dive on the ball for an unconverted try.

However, Bridport didn't let their heads drop and Waters collected another three points from a penalty kick just behind the 22 metre line.

The half first half ended with a New Milton try after a complacent Bridport defence allowed the home team to create an overlap with a home winger going over in the corner.

The converted try led to hosts carrying a six point lead into half time. Depth of squad then punished Bridport in the second half as legs out played Bridport across the park.

A shoulder injury to Harry Richardson unfortunately left Bridport with only 14 players for the rest of the game.

Despite valiant defending the depleted Bridport team conceded three more tries as New Milton ran out 29-6 winners.

On Saturday Bridport travel to NORTH DORSET who currently sit bottom of the Dorset & Wilts Two South table.

Lyme Regis Gig Club

Wild seas test rowers at season finale

LYME Regis Gig Club men's division took part on the Cornwall County Championships last weekend.

High winds and rough seas were the theme of the weekend of gig racing in one of the most prestigious championships on the go racing circuit.

The Cornwall County Championship is the oldest gig racing competition and dates back to 1970 when just a few local Cornish crews took part.

This year the two-day event saw nearly 80 crews taking part in the men's event alone.

Unlike most other regattas, in the Newquay event crews are randomly allotted boats, so crews are never quite sure what the boat will be set up like, adding further to the challenge.

In round one, crews are split into heats of 6 boats. Lyme entered three men's crews, with B crew taking to the seas first in heat one.

A solid row with stiff competition saw the crew come in 5th, not enough to make it to round two, but with an overall position of 66th and the 4th best C crew overall.

Next up were Lyme's A crew, drawn in heat two. They led from the start and were able to ease off to come home in 1st position and through to round two.

The B crew had to wait until heat 12 later in the morning.

They battled well finishing 4th in their heat and with a fast enough time to comfortably make it to round two.

The afternoon's round two was made up of eight heats, with Lyme's A and B crew drawn in the same heat, which meant a shuffle of coxswains. With Chris Walters and David Clayton stepping into the driving seats, the crews lined up along with five other crews on the start line.

Strong winds and heavy seas pushed some boats back as the start was called which left both Lyme's crews at the back of the field.

The A crew gradually drew through the group but could not catch leaders

Bristol and came home in 2nd place. The B crew battled hard for a 6th place finish. This meant the A crew had made it through to day two of the event, with the B crew finishing 36th.

Sunday's racing saw no let-up in the conditions, with winds turning westerly resulting in even rougher water. Lyme were drawn in heat four alongside Falmouth (World Champions), the formidable Caradon and also Newquay, Coverack, Cotehele Quay and Padstow.

Rowing in "Lannvoren" initially they held their own with Caradon alongside but a technical fault with the foot holders saw them drop to 4th.

Then, as they took the first buoy turn, they were taken on the inside by both Coverack and Newquay crews.

They continued to battle hard knowing they could still qualify for the next round on time, but despite keeping close with the crews ahead they came in 5th place, 14 seconds from making it through to the semi-final.

Their final position of 17th saw both the A and B crews improve on last year's results.

This is an admirable achievement in a sport where the bar is set considerably higher each year with crews becoming fitter, more professional and technically better - a long way from those early days in the 1970s!

Final winners were Falmouth, followed by Caradon (2nd), Looe (3rd) and Caradon B (4th).

Although there are a few minor races yet to come, the Newquay races mark the traditional end of the competitive season, with rowers taking a well deserved rest before starting the long winter build up towards racing in 2017.

Next month there will be a full report on the club's endeavours over the course of the season.

If you have ever fancied having a go at gig rowing and getting fitter in the process, go to www.lymeregisgigclub.com for details.

West Bay Sea Angling Club

Brothers in close finish

THE Chambers brothers once again were involved in a close finish in the latest West Bay Sea Angling junior member's competition held recently on the East Pier.

Thirteen members and one guest turned out to fish on a cloudy day, where once again the sea was dirty with large waves and a southerly 5 wind, but all but two of the contestants managed to catch fish.

Species caught on the day: flounder, bass, pout, whiting, rockling and pollock.

Ewan Chambers took the lead, but was beaten to first place by his brother Aaron who only caught one fish which weighed 133g, but being of legal size took precedence, leapfrogging him over all the other contestants.

Result: 1st: Legal Chambers 133g Legal Weight, 2nd: Ewan Chambers 205g (118g Legal Weight), 3rd:

Ollie Butler 377g, Heaviest Flatfish: Caolan Ayers 87g flounder, Heaviest Round Fish: Ollie Butler 157g bass, Heaviest Weever: none caught (prize rolls over), Most Species: Ollie Butler three, Smallest Fish: Ollie Butler 8g whiting, Last Fish: Jack Parkman 20g whiting, Most Fish: Tie between Ollie Butler and Owen Swatridge eight each.

Sponsors on the day: Watchhouse Cafe, Kay Guppy, Richard "Tiny" Daw, Donna Salvador-Swords and Andrew Fowler.

◆ WINNER: Aaron Chambers

Away day blues for Bridport

SATURDAY saw Bridport's inconsistent start to the season continued with an away defeat to New Milton. Second writes Andrew Livingston.

They looked to build on the previous home win, however the Blues came unstuck as they took only 15 players to face a New Milton side that had won their first two games.

Eventually losing 29-6, Bridport had the better start of the two teams as Daragh McLoughlin looked to be in for the first try.

Tom East offloaded to fullback Rich Pearce who broke the line from half way. McLoughlin supported Pearce and took the ball onwards only to loose possession on the line after a last ditch cover tackle.

However, the resulting New Milton scrum was rushed by the Bridport forwards pack and a penalty was awarded to the blues on the ensuing ruck. Mitch Waters converted the penalty and gratefully put Bridport in front.

Bridport's positive start began to unravel from there on out as New Milton slowly began to grow into the game, camping in the visitors 22.

Sustained pressure eventually allowed New Milton their first points as a grubber kick through was not cleared up by the Bridport defence, allowing the New Milton wing to dive on the ball for a try. The conversion was missed leaving the home side 5 - 3 up.

However Bridport had learnt from previous defeats to keep their shape and not to let their heads drop after conceding.

Patience prevailed for the blues as a New Milton mistake led to Waters collecting another three points from a penalty kick just behind the 22 metre line.

The half first half was finished with a New Milton try after a complacent Bridport defence allowed to the home winger to get over in the corner.

The converted try led to New Milton carrying a six point lead into half time.

A lack of depth to their squad then punished Bridport in the second half as a shoulder injury to Harry Richardson unfortunately left them with only 14 players for the rest of the game.

Despite valiant defending, New Milton ran in three more tries.

On Saturday the Blues travel to NORTH DORSET who currently sit bottom of the Dorset and Wilts Two South table.

U11s away v Oakmedians

Sunday, October 2nd
This was a tough first fixture for the young Blues, against a large Oakmedians squad.

Both games were lost, the first by seven tries to nil and the second by five tries to nil.

On the plus side the three new players in the team slotted in well, and indeed debutant Henri Green was named Player of the Day.

It is early days, and there is much to come from this promising side.

West Dorset Hawks Hockey

Hawks hit five to remove Hornets' sting

West Dorset A 5 ECV Hornets B 0
WEST Dorset A made the perfect start to the 2016/17 season in the GoCrea8 South East 2 division, with a comprehensive 5-0 home victory over the recently relegated Hornets.

A brace from both John Kellas and Dan Wyatt, and another from Russell Coombes provided a score that reflected the balance of play.

Conditions proved somewhat challenging with a half time down pour delaying push back of the second half.

Nevertheless, the combination of experience and fitness saw the Hawks overcome a disorganised Hornets team, making their first appearance in the division having been relegated last year.

From the start, the midfield pairing of Dan Wyatt and Andrew Frampton bossed proceedings superbly in the middle third, providing endless supply for the front attackers.

Up front, the determination of Richard Wilson and the movement of Kellas caused the visiting defence a variety of inconsistent problems.

A number of attacks, aided by the flamboyancy of Coombes and agility of debutant Jayson Perfect, kept the Hornets under pressure for most of the first half.

The breakthrough finally came from a short corner. Wilson's misplaced push out found Wyatt who surprisingly thought better of shooting for goal himself and laid it to Coombes to nervously tap in at the far post.

Kellas bagged the second, being at the right place at the right time, to guide in a wayward shot.

Wyatt added the third before half time at the second attempt, having been gifted another chance to fly the ball into the net from the initial save.

The umpires didn't hesitate to take shelter during the half-time monsoon, and eventually invited the players into their dry surroundings just before the second half was due to start.

Hawks' urgency was somewhat dampened at the start the second half, and allowed the Hornets a few rare chances. Krystian Dubas somehow saved what should have been an inevitable goal for the away team, after goalkeeper Alex Drew stranded himself following a moment of nutmeg madness.

That was a close as the Hornets came to scoring, as the defensive and man marking display from Dubas, Bertie Newman and Henry Middleton, marshalled superbly by Julian May, kept the visitors at bay.

As the second half wore on, the Hawks upped a couple of gears and went on to secure the game with further goals from Kellas and Wyatt, who's effortless shot from a short corner found its way in to make it 5-0 to the hosts.

The Hawks will be looking to continue the good start on Saturday, as they travel East Devon C.

Double for Grier

MARTIN Grier picked up both the Summer singles and doubles trophies in the final competition of the season.

Leading 15-11 in the singles against Paul Haller, Grier found himself three shots down on the next end, but drew shot with his final wood to keep the advantage, before going on to record a comfortable 21-12 victory.

He also teamed up with Margaret Pestelleto to take the title with a runaway win over Barbara Jenkins & Hugh Rees.

The rookies final was fiercely contested between Les Heath and Martin Walters. It was 6-6 early on before Heath shot ahead 14-6 ahead, but then had to fend off a fight back from Walters.

◆ SADLY MISSED: Max Dare

ters before taking the title.

It will be a sad start to the winter season for the club as they will miss the presence of probably the most well known bowler in Dorset, Max Dare.

Max has played more than a 100 times for Dorset but has sadly been struck down with Motor Neurone disease as just 59 years of age.

Bridport Squash

3rds clinch first win

IT'S been an inauspicious start to the season for Bridport Squash Club so far with the club's 1st team losing their first three fixtures in Division One, and the 2nds going down heavily to Dorchester 2nds in their first game of the campaign in Division Three.

The 3rd team also got off to a losing start in Division Four, well beaten by Dorchester 4th. However they have finally got the club's first win of the season under their belt, beating David Lloyd Ringwood 2nd.

Bridport 3rd 15 David Lloyd Ringwood 2nd 7

THIS was a very workmanlike performance by Bridport 3rds playing against an experienced Ringwood side with the newcomers to the team showing how you can master experience by resilience writes Roger Lewis.

On court at one for Bridport was Neson Wood against Ringwood's Andrew Skipsey. Wood showed how well he has improved in a masterful performance. His patience and controlled shot play gave his opponent no opportunity to settle consequently he powered through to record a very good 9-1, 9/-, 9-4 victory.

Mike Perry was in very good form against Russell Young at number two. The game started tentatively with both players testing each others tactics which produced some demanding rallies. Once Perry got his game going he gradually wore down his opponent who could not cope with his variety of play to claim victory by 7-9, 10-8, 9-7, 9.

At three Bridport's Tyrone Trower was up against a useful opponent in Mark Avoth, and as well as Trower was allowed to play, he found Avoth had all the decisive shots, a strategy Avoth employed right through the game. This sapped Trower's stamina and he eventually went down fighting 9-1, 7-9, 7-9, 2-9.

Dave Hall at four had a very difficult task against a very cagey opponent in Justin Gollings, who had the capacity to alter the pace of the game according to his type of shot making. This made it difficult for Hall to counter attack and his play became very limited as the game progressed, and with Gollings having all the answers, he powered through to win 9-6, 9-7, 9-0. Bridport's Alan Atyeo at five, showed exactly how the game should be played against Glyn Turner with a very cultured performance.

From the start he played a patient game waiting for Turner to make mistakes which proved successful as Atyeo went through to record a very good 10-8, 9-1, 9-2 margin.

Lyme Regis Sailing

Stubbs at the double

THE first two races of the October series, the last of the main sailing season, were held on Sunday.

With the cruisers away on a final trip down the coast to Beer, and a bright sunny morning, it was a case of waiting until the wind settled.

Breezes shifting between NE and SE filled in before Race Officer Jess Kent could set off the small fleet.

Smooth seas helped progress then a change of course to accommodate a more settled SE breeze gave better racing conditions.

The two winners, Dave Guthrie and Tim Rook helming Jerry Rook's Albacore, each sailed only one of the races, leaving Dave Stubbs as overall leader having gained two second places.

The RS800 did less well in light winds, Cameron Moss alternating seventh and eighth places with Fraser Earle in his Contender. But there is a long way to go in the 14 race series and stronger winds are expected during the month.

Results - Race One: 1st Tim Rook (Albacore), 2nd Dave Stubbs (RS 200), 3rd Hilton Davis (K1).

Race Two: 1st Dave Guthrie (Phantom), 2nd Dave Stubbs (RS 200), 3rd Hilton Davis (K1).

Lyme Regis Golf

Shepherd guides them home

THE club held a CHARITY DAY in aid of this year's charities SUDEP Action and the Muir Maxwell Trust, which are part of the fight against sudden death syndrome due to epilepsy.

SUDEP is mainly research and support for bereaved families while Muir Maxwell, a smaller organisation, distributes tablet sized alarm pads to go under a child's mattress which is activated in the parent's bedroom if it detects abnormal movement. Jane Hanna OBE, one of the founder members of SUDEP was there to present the prizes and receive in excess of £1600 raised on the day.

In the LADIES STABLEFORD Rosemary Shepherd's 36 points was the best score of the day and ensured the DIVISION ONE title. Jean Jolley was 2nd with 33, and Ros Cox (32) 3rd.

Amy Muford secured DIVISION Two with 32 points from Mary Minter 31 and Lesley Jelleymann, 29.

There were some exciting close scores in the JUNIOR MEDAL but it was Lewis Gibbons who won with a nett 73 followed by Dominic Beardwood nett 74 on count-back from Ben Prosser.

Galpin gallops to Medal win

Men's Section

THE men's Sunday competition was the October Medal and the weather was fine, sunny and with little wind so it was not surprising some good scores amongst the 45 entrants were turned in.

The top score in all three divisions was a nett 66, and the best gross score was carded by winner of Division One Mike Savage. His score of 75 was made up of 14 pars and four bogies.

He had a clear lead of four shots in his division where runner-up was Matt Gale with a nett 70. The nett 66 that won Division Two was scored by Roger Galpin.

Two players came in with a nett 66 in Division Three and, after count-back, Geoff Joy nudged Mike Huxford into second place.

Results

Division One: 1st Mike Savage 75-9=66, 2nd (acb) Matt Gale 80-10=70, 3rd (acb) Gavin Gay 78-8=70.

Division Two: 1st Roger Galpin 83-17=66, 2nd David Corp 85-16=69, 3rd Jon Legg-Bagg 84-14=70.

Division Three: 1st (acb) Geoff Joy 86-20=66, 2nd Mike Huxford 89-23=66, 3rd Andy Webb 87-20=67.

Galpin, Joy and Huxford had handicaps reduced by two strokes, Savage and Webb by one.

The October Medal was won by Mannie Wellman with 90-21=69.

Meanwhile, 14 teams took part in the Good Cup, a Stableford competition for mixed pairs. The teams of George & Avril Brown and Mike Savage & Ruth Donovan both came in with 33 points with the former winning after count-back. Roy & Viv Gill were third with 28.

Veterans Section

FIFTY-FIVE players turned out for the recent veterans Stableford competition which also incorporated the Over 70s Cup.

Bryan Holmes (17) & Peter Marshall (8), two youngsters - not old enough to qualify for the cup - lead the field, both scoring 38 points with Holmes winning after count-back.

Winner of the silverware, Martin Oliver (23) took third place also on count-back with 36 points.

Ladies Section by Lyn Hargreave

A TOTAL of 11 pairs played in the Daily Mail Foursomes last Tuesday.

With everywhere else shrouded in fog and drizzle, the course, whilst not being bathed in sunshine, was clear enough for play to start and indeed for some sun to peep through later.

Wonder strikes downs Reserves

Parley Sports 5 Bridport 2

Dorset Premier League

MANAGER Shaun Annetts was not too angry after his side had shipped five against Parley Sports on Saturday - just flabbergasted.

"The score line doesn't reflect the game, we were on the end of three wonder strikes - you can't legislate for that."

Annetts was confident going into the game having the luxury of first teamers Ryan Hayter, Tom Blair and Alan Hill, all in need of game minutes, and was optimistic of getting a positive result.

Blair immediately showed his ability as he skipped past his full back twice in the opening minutes, but unfortunately on each occasion a colleague was inches from converting his cut backs.

Sports quickly counter attacked and Ben Bosley rifled his first time effort into the top corner of Billy Fleet's goal.

This took the wind out of Bridport's sails and as they looked to regroup, Parley dominated with Fleet keeping them at bay with a superb save with his legs in a one-on-one.

However, the Bees rallied and Josh Hunter hit a sweet shot into the bottom corner from 20 yards for the equaliser.

They went in at the break looking the better side but were set back soon after the interval with two quick goals. The first came on 54 minutes when the ball was laid back to Mike Laronde some 30 yards from goal who rifled his shot in Fleet's bottom corner.

Three minutes later the hosts were awarded a penalty when Luke King was adjudged to have fouled in a challenge. Matt Newbury converted the spot kick.

With their tails up Sports added another five minutes later with a third wonder strike; again from Newbury.

Once again the Bees rallied and were again rewarded with a second goal when a defender, under pressure from Gale, turned the ball into his own net from Blair's deep cross.

But in added time Parley quickly cleared a ball that had come back off their crossbar and James Shering added a fifth.

Annetts concluded: "5-2 sounds like a drubbing but it was never that. We wouldn't expect ever to concede three strikes like that in a game again, and if luck had gone better for us and we had perhaps been a bit sharper, on another day we might have got a draw or even won it."

Wake up call

PORTESHAM UTD RES 2 BRIDPORT A 2

Dorset Division Four

AFTER two good opening victories Bridport A were brought back to earth with a bump in a hard fought draw against Portesham Reserves.

On a windswept pitch at Weymouth College, the Bees put in what can only be described as a lacklustre performance.

Despite taking a first half lead through Brandon Scadding Portesham hit back to lead through a Liam Reid double to lead 2-1 before the visitors levelled with a brilliant strike from Kieran McAllister.

Bees Manager Mark Scadding said: "Something was missing today, and they just didn't look interested. They made mistake after mistake in front of goal.

"Maybe this will be the wake-up call to remind them there are no easy games this season."

Bridport Gig Rowing

Bridport just miss out on semi-final spot

BRIDPORT gig rowing clubs men's and ladies teams put on fabulous performances at their respective county championships held in Newquay to secure their best ever results at this prestigious event.

The format is a knockout style event over two days, meaning time is everything. Large Atlantic swells which characterise this coastline make this a unique place to row; providing tricky conditions which can change within the space of a day.

On the opening day the ladies A, B and C crews raced in rough seas against tough opposition round the two-mile course in to secure their best ever results.

The ladies C crew finished 94th out of 99 teams, missing out on a place in the second round.

The ladies B crew came second in their first heat, resulting in an automatic promotion into round two, where they secured 46th place overall.

The ladies A crew put in two fast races on day one before being knocked out in the quarter finals finishing 23rd overall.

Bridport's men's B crew finished sixth in their heat with a time of 16.00 minutes, narrowly missing out on a place in the next round by a matter of seconds.

The A crew rowed a fast time giving them a place in round two in which they crossed the line in second place.

This provided the chance to row in the quarter finals when they failed to make the semi finals, finishing 21st overall, with the men's B team 52nd.

Falmouth men's A won the championship, with Caradon A second.

Men's captain, Kevin Batchelor was very proud of the achievements of the men's crews, and hopes to continue this form into next year.

◆ GOOD PERFORMANCE: The Bridport men's A team which narrowly missed out on a place in the semi-finals

The club's next event is a big breakfast, being held at the Salt-house, West Bay on Sunday, October 16th.

All are welcome 9am-1pm, adults

£6 and primary school children £3.

Bees boost ranks with Mann

BRIDPORT FC have signed Elliot Mann from Sherborne Town as manager Adam Fricker look to kick start the Bees' season.

The former Chard boss announced that he was looking to add new faces to his squad following the 5-0 trouncing by Chipping Sodbury that leaves them fourth bottom in the Toolstation Western League Premier Division with just seven points from 11 games. They were also dumped out of the FA Cup and Vase at the first hurdle.

Mann is believed to be the first of at least three new faces set to join the club in the next few days.

The 19-year-old signed after the club's training session last Thursday is likely to make his debut on Saturday when the Bees travel to Hallen.

Mann will help boost the lack of top level Western League experience in the team as well as firepower, having scored 13 times in 37 appearances for the Zebras last term.

Assistant manager Jason Behan said: "Elliot is a tidy player who can score goals, and will be a very useful addition."

Talking about the difficult start he said: "Because we have had lots of niggling injuries and unavailability it has been difficult period, and several of the Chard lads that have joined us have had to step up a league. It's unfortunate because they could benefit from bedding in a bit longer."

Impressed by the number of young players coming through the ranks, Behan said it was not the best time to introduce them.

"The club have a really good crop coming through, but it's difficult to bring young players into a side which is at present struggling results wise."

"I also think we have had a very difficult start to the campaign, playing a lot of the better sides, and sometimes not getting the breaks."

He also admitted he and Fricker were both on a learning curve: "Adam and I are also at a bit of a disadvantage in that we have no experience of the sides in this league, so we don't have any history on how they set up."

He is however encouraged by the return of Ryan Hayter who successfully came through Saturday's reserve match.

"Ryan's return to fitness is a huge boost. His experience and leadership has been missed and we hope that he will help us get back on track."

"We have got quite a few nice footballers, but we don't have much physicality and the presence of Ryan and Louis Rutter will help that."

Apart from George Chlopecki who has had a re-occurrence of the knee injury that kept him out for much of last season, Behan is hopeful that they will have a full squad to pick from this week-end.

Midfielder Andy Martin who dislocated his shoulder three weeks ago resumed training last night, although Behan is unsure whether he will be fit to start.
